Teacher Comments:

Commendable work effort

Section Description:

The Health course (5 semester units) provides a comprehensive framework for understanding and achieving wholistic health. Topics covered include nutrition and wellness, cardiovascular health, mental and emotional health (relationships, peer pressure, values, domestic violence, anger management, etc.), introduction to psychology and sociology theory, first aid and CPR basics, HIV/AIDS and other STDs, and effects of all types of drugs and drug abuse. Assessment is done with a combination of individual projects, journal writing on related topics, short essay exams, and other assigned homework. Grading is done on a point system, with all types of assessments weighed equally.
